

An innovative application of expandable liner technology re-lined a non-sour gas-compliant wellbore, clearing the way for a gas-lift recompletion and restoring production to a pressure-depleted oil well. Moreover, at 7,047 ft in length, the non-traditional installation established a world record for a solid-expandable liner run.

Read full article

